THE COACHES

After seven straight winning seasons, Maryann Mitts is quickly closing in on becoming the winningest coach in Missouri Southern history. Under Mitts' guidance, the Lions have put together 15 or more wins in six of Mitts' seven years at the helm and have moved back into the upper echelon of the highly competitive Mid-America Intercollegiate Athletics Association. Mitts currently sits in second place on the all-time MSSU wins list, just a short 14 games away from passing Jim Phillips, MSSU's current all-time winningest coach.

Overall, Mitts has compiled a 116-81 (.588) record in six years with the Lions. She holds a 199-137 (.592) mark in 11 years as a collegiate head coach.

Dave Denly is in his 11th season at the helm of the Southwestern College Lady Builders and has the Lady Builders off to a 3-0 start this season. Denly is the winningest coach in school history, with an overall record of 192-111. He has guided the Lady Builders to three straight 20-win seasons.

Bo Bivens has led the Paul Quinn Lady Tigers to a 1-2 mark so far this season, including a 1-1 record in the NAIA Red River Conference.

THE DISH ON THE LIONS

Senior Lindsey Davis and freshman Michelle Hedgecock each posted a double-double to lead the Missouri Southern Lions to a 77-65 exhibition victory over Living the Dream Friday night (Nov. 7) at the Leggett & Platt Athletic Center.

Davis scored 11 points and had a team-high 11 rebounds, while Hedgecock scored 16 and grabbed 10 boards.

Wood was the Lions' high-scorer with 18 points on 7-of-13 shooting, including 4-of-7 from three-point range. Barnes also scored in double-figures and finished with 13. Tia Evenson dished out a team-high five assists.

The Lions welcome back three starters and seven letterwinners from a group that finished 18-10 a year ago and narrowly missed an NCAA Tournament berth.

Senior India Wood is the Lions' leading returning scorer after averaging 10.9 ppg last year, while fellow senior Danielle DeVader was the Lions' top perimeter threat last season, making 45 from three-point distance.

THE DISH ON SOUTHWESTERN (KAN.)

The Southwestern Lady Builders are off to a 3-0 start to the 2008-09 campaign after a 23-9 season last year. Kara Beal has scored a team-high 20.3 ppg through the three contests. Jordyn Cossman averages 12.0 ppg, while Ellen Blattner also scored in double-figures at 10.0 ppg. Gretchen Blattner has recorded a team-high six rebounds a game.

THE DISH ON PAUL QUINN (TEXAS)

The Paul Quinn Lady Tigers are 1-2 through the first three games of the 2008-09 season. They are led in scoring by Ashley Williams at 15.3 ppg and Crystal DeBose with 12.7 ppg. Tarneshia Burns also scores 11.7 ppg. Williams leads the Lady Tigers with 13.7 rebounds, while DeBose has hit a team-high eight three-pointers. Hannah DeBose has dished out a team-best 4.0 assists per game.

THE SERIES

The Lions defeated Southwestern in their only meeting 103-59 at home during the 1996-97 season. This will be the first-ever matchup for the Lions with Paul Quinn.

STRONG OUT OF THE GATE

The Missouri Southern Lions have been notourious fast starters under Maryann Mitts. The Lions have won their season opener four straight years and five of the last six. Those solid starts have led to the Lions entering the MIAA conference season with a lot of momentum, as Southern is a combined 55-13 in November and December under Mitts after last year's 9-0 start.

TRACKING MITTS

MSSU head coach Maryann Mitts is fast-moving up the school's all-time wins list. Mitts is currently second on the Lions' all-time wins list and needs just 14 more wins to pass Jim Phillips to become the school's all-time winningest coach. Mitts is in her seventh season at MSSU and is 116-81 (.588) overall.

FRESHMAN IMPACT

Even though it was an exhibition contest, true freshman Michelle Hedgecock made a great first impression in the Lions' 77-65 win over Living the Dream. Hedgecock posted a double-double of 16 points and 10 rebounds. She shot 7-of-11 from the field and also made her only three-point field-goal attempt.

UP NEXT

MSSU will entertain Northeastern State in its home-opener on Saturday afternoon (Nov. 22) at 1 p.m. at the Leggett & Platt Athletic Center. The Lions have won three straight in the series, including last season's 70-62 victory over NSU in Tahlequah, Okla.

Exhibition • Nov. 7, 2008
Lions 77, Livin the Dream 65

Senior Lindsey Davis and freshman Michelle Hedgecock each posted a double-double to lead the Missouri Southern Lions to a 77-65 exhibition victory over Living the Dream Friday night (Nov. 7) at the Leggett & Platt Athletic Center.

Davis scored 11 points and had a team-high 11 rebounds, while Hedgecock scored 16 and grabbed 10 boards.

Davis scored four early points as the Lions led 11-4 and then made a layup to help the Lions extend the advantage to double-digits at 22-11 with 9:14 remaining in the first half.

Former Lion Ashley Birch helped LTD climb back by scoring six points to key a 15-9 spurt that pulled LTD to within 31-26 with 2:58 left in the opening half.

The Lions then scored six straight, including a jumper from Myosha Barnes with five seconds left for a 37-26 lead the break.

The Lions maintained the lead throughout the second half, as the closest LTD came was six points after a free throw from Ebony Haliburton made it 44-38 with 14:29 remaining in the contest.

Southern quickly stretched the lead back to double-figures and led 51-40 after an India Wood layup with 11:24 left.

Hedgecock gave the Lions their biggest lead of the night with a layup that made it 65-50 with 6:47 remaining.
