
142 / Physical Science, Political Science

Phys 301 (F) 4 hrs. cr.

Modern Physics

Special theory of relativity, wave-particle experiments, introductory quantum mechanics, and nuclear physics. Prerequisite: Phys 280; corequisite: Math 260.

Phys 312 (Su, Demand) 3 hrs. cr.

Statics

Principles of mechanics as applied to problems of engineering in which the structures under consideration are in static equilibrium. Three lectures per week. Prerequisite: Phys 260 and Math 250 or permission of instructor.

Phys 322 (S, Even) 3 hrs. cr.

Classical Mechanics

Kinematics and dynamics of particles and systems of particles including the harmonic oscillator, potential functions, conservative fields of force, accelerated reference frames, energy, gravitation and rigid bodies. Three hours lecture per week. Prerequisite: Phys 260; corequisite: Math 322 or permission of instructor.

Phys 341 (S, Odd) 4 hrs. cr.

Thermal Physics

Temperature, transfer of heat, laws of thermodynamics, entropy, enthalpy, reversibility and irreversibility, thermal properties of materials, change of phase, use of thermodynamic tables and introduction to heat transfer. Four hours lecture per week. Prerequisite: Phys 260; corequisite: Math 260.

Phys 372 (S) 4 hrs. cr.

Electronic Circuits

Ohm's law, Kirchoff's laws, Nodal analysis, mesh analysis, Thevenin's and Norton's theorems, superposition, inductors and capacitors, source-free RL and RC circuits, RLC circuits. Complex variables and their application to steady-state AC circuits. Three 1-hr. lectures and one three-hour lab per week. Presently limited to 15 students by equipment considerations. Prerequisite: Phys 290; corequisite: Math 322 or permission of instructor.

Phys 381 (Demand) 3 hrs. cr.

Intermediate Physics Laboratory (Writing Intensive)

Experiments in classical and modern physics, including wave phenomena, heat transfer, electrical measurements, optics, photoelectric effect, and radioactivity. Two three-hour labs per week. Prerequisite: Phys 301 or permission of instructor.

Phys 401 (F, Odd) 4 hrs. cr.

Electricity and Magnetism

Electrostatic forces, electric fields, electric potential, properties of conductors and dielectrics, magnetic fields, magnetic properties, induced electromotive force, Maxwell's equations and electromagnetic waves. Four hours lecture per week. Prerequisites: Math 260 and Phys 290.

Phys 430 (Demand) 1-3 hrs. cr.

Internship in Physics

In conference with departmental representatives at least six weeks in advance, the student shall elect to work and observe in any area of applied physics in which on-the-job experience would be beneficial to the student's training. Prerequisites: Junior standing in physics with a minimum of 17 hours of physics or by permission.

Phys 452 (Demand) 3 hrs. cr.

Quantum Mechanics

Time independent Schroedinger equation, eigenfunctions, expectation values, differential operators, perturbation theory, multielectron atoms, and applications to solid state physics. Three hours lecture per week. Prerequisite: Phys 301 and Math 322.

Phys 480 (Demand) 3 hrs. cr.

Selected Topics in Physics and Engineering

One or more of the following topics for further study: solid state physics, optics, nuclear physics, advanced mechanics, quantum mechanics, circuit analysis, thermodynamics, fluid mechanics heat transfer, and mechanics of materials. Open to students having a minimum of 18 hours of physics and permission of instructor.

Phys 490 (Demand) 1-3 hrs. cr.

Seminar

Students will select two subjects from areas of physics and engineering in which they have an interest. The student will research the area and communicate the results with the physics faculty and the class. One area will require a written paper with a short (15 minute) presentation and the other will require a written paper and a one-hour presentation. Both presentations will have question and answer sessions. Secondary education majors will be required to present several lecture-demonstration programs illustrating the basic concepts of physics at the secondary level. Open to students having a minimum of 18 hours of physics and permission of the instructor.

Phys 497 (Demand) 1-3 hrs. cr.

Research in Physics

Independent research technique, laboratory work, and literature search under the supervision of an instructor on a physics research project. Involves laboratory experimentation or theoretical calculation, written report, and an oral presentation from any area of physics. Open to students having: 1) minimum of 15 hours of physics, 2) junior or senior standing, 3) the ability to undertake independent work, and 4) permission of the instructor. Registration must be approved by the adviser and the department head.

Phys 498 (Demand) 1-3 hrs. cr.

Advanced Topics in Physics

Designed to give advanced instruction in some area not covered in other courses. For upper division majors. Prerequisites to be determined by the department.

Phys 499 (F, S) 1-3 hrs. cr.

Independent Study

Course structured by the adviser with approval of the department head. Prerequisite: Advanced standing with a GPA of 3.0 in the major field. Registration must be approved by the adviser, department head, and school dean.

POLITICAL SCIENCE

Webster Hall 245, 417.625.9564

Faculty Miller - Head, St. Clair, Simpson, Wyman, Yates

Mission

The primary mission of the Social Science Department is to prepare our students for dynamic leadership and responsible citizenship in their communities, their nation, and the world. The Department also contributes to the broader mission of the University by providing students the opportunities to cultivate critical thinking, communication, and technological skills that will develop an awareness of and engagement with the complex social issues of the 21st century. The faculty seeks to offer substantive instruction and intellectual nurture in the Social Sciences, and to assist the advancement of higher-order thinking students can apply to their own lives as individuals, professionals, and citizens. The department's mission includes an emphasis on opportunities to engage the broader international world, consistent with the University's international mission. Finally, the Social Science Department seeks to build bridges and avenues of communication between the University and the community, through academic internships, public events, and partnerships with local institutions, and the sponsorship of academic programs and events for local students and their teachers.

The Bachelor degree with a major in Political Science is appropriate for those students seeking to do graduate work in political science, enter professional schools of law or public administration, join the public service, or work in community service as well as general career options. A Bachelor of Science in Education degree with a major in Social Studies - Political Science emphasis - certifies a student to teach on the secondary school level. A minor in Political Science is available for students majoring in other disciplines. In addition, see page 147 for a Social Science minor or the Social Studies in Secondary Education minor.

Core Curriculum requirements and Missouri statute requirements are met by PSc 120.

PSc 120 is a prerequisite for all other political science courses.

Course Descriptions

PSc 120 (F, S) 3 hrs. cr.

Government: U.S., State, & Local

Designed to give students an understanding of their governments, enabling them to keep up with political developments with the goal of becoming informed citizens needed to sustain democracy. A Core Curriculum requirement for all bachelor's degrees and prerequisite for all political science courses. Successful completion of this course fulfills the Missouri state requirements in constitutional study.

PSc 201(F) 3 hrs. cr.

Introduction to Political Science

Introduction to the discipline of political science. The course is a preview of the major subunits of the discipline: American politics including public administration and legal studies; international relations; political theory; and comparative politics.

PSc 298 (Demand) 3 hrs. cr.

Topics in Political Science

Special political science topics of current interest to the student or faculty member who offers the class. Subjects and instructors change each semester. Students are encouraged to suggest possible course topics to the political science faculty.

PSc 301 (F, Even) 3 hrs. cr.

Political Parties and Elections (Writing Intensive)

Analysis of the origins, structure and functions of political parties; the dynamics of the two-party system; the role of third parties and the election process.

PSc 302 (F, Odd) 3 hrs. cr.

Public Opinion and Pressure Groups (Writing Intensive)

Origins, impact, and measurement of public opinion. Scope, nature, and powers of interest groups in American society with special attention to their role in formulating public opinion and public policy.

PSc 305 (Su, F) 3 hrs. cr.

Social Science Statistics

Provides basic tools necessary to gather, describe, analyze, and present quantitative social science data. Focus will be on conducting basic univariate and bivariate analyses. Prerequisite: Math 125.

PSc 306 (S, Even) 3 hrs. cr.

Introduction to Political Science Research Methods

An introduction to the ways in which political scientists conduct research. An emphasis will be placed on quantitative analysis and the decisions faced by political scientists when both designing and consuming social inquiry. Prerequisites: PSC 305.

146 / Political Science

PSc 310 (Demand) Law, Society, and the Judicial Process (Writing Intensive) American legal system viewed from a social and political as well as legal perspective. PSc 330 (F, Odd) Comparative Politics: Developed Countries Comparative analysis of government and politics in both the major developed democracies and in developing states. The course examines themes of democratization, institutional design, parties and party systems, as well as the impact of social and economic change on the conduct and evolution of modern political systems. Prerequisite: PSc 120.	3 hrs. cr.	PSc 494 (S, Odd) Seminar in Political Science Specialized knowledge and/or current research in the discipline. Topics will vary by situation and instructor. Students will prepare and critique papers based on original research. Prerequisite: 9 hours of upper division political science.	3 hrs. cr.
Psc 332 (S, Even) Comparative Politics: Developing Countries This course is designed to develop a broadly based understanding of governments and cultures of developing countries and their relative positions in the global system. Themes to be examined in both theory and practice include colonialism, democratization, persistent economic underdevelopment, political processes, and cultural factors. Prerequisite: PSc 120.	3 hrs. cr.	PSc 495 (F) Directed Research (Writing Intensive) Students design and conduct research projects resulting in a written report and an oral presentation. Prerequisites: PSc 305, PSc 306, and senior standing.	3 hrs. cr.
PSc 341 (S, Even) Municipal Government Structure, legal status, functions, and organization of city, town, and village government in the United States.	3 hrs. cr.	PSc 496 (Demand) Internship in Political Science Observation of and participation in governmental work under the direct supervision of a faculty member and a professional who is employed in the governmental position being observed. No more than 3 hours may be counted toward a major or minor.	3-8 hrs. cr.
PSc 342 (F, Even) Public Policy An introductory survey of the formulation, execution, and evaluation of public policy in the United States.	3 hrs. cr.	PSc 497 (Demand) Capital Internship Observation of and participation in governmental work under the direct supervision of a faculty member and a professional who is employed in the governmental position being observed. The student will live and work in the capital from the opening of the legislative session until its conclusion or the last day of MSSU's spring semester.	8 hrs. cr.
PSc 398 (F) Political Discourse A topics and event driven, open forum for examination of current issues at the national, state, and local levels of government. The course is conducted as a discussion group with the instructor providing directed reading assignments and presentations on discursive practices, traditions, and models within the discipline as appropriate. May be repeated one time for credit.	1 hr. cr.	PSc 498 (Demand) Advanced Topics in Political Science For upper division political science majors. Topics covered and methods used will place emphasis on student-instructor interest, desire to pursue indepth research, and ability to assimilate topics. It will include areas not already treated in other political science courses. Prerequisites: 15 hours of political science or consent of instructor.	3 hrs. cr.

PSc 499 (F, S)

1-2-3-4 hrs. cr.

Independent Study

For students who wish to do an indepth study of some specialized topic or who wish to pursue a topic not considered in the department's course offerings. The student will select an adviser from the political science faculty who will structure the independent study in consultation with the student and with the approval of the department head. Prerequisite: Junior or senior status and an overall cumulative GPA of 3.0 or better. Enrollment must be approved by department head and school dean.

PREPROFESSIONAL

Justice Center 126, 417.625.3155

This curriculum allows Missouri Southern students to complete admission requirements for professional schools that accept applicants who have completed approximately 60 hours. Students should incorporate professional school requirements into their schedule and work closely with an adviser at Missouri Southern. Also, students who are completing certification requirements for paramedic programs may transfer among Missouri public four-year colleges and universities.

Within the social sciences are the disciplines of anthropology, geography, history, paralegal studies, political science, and sociology.

Each discipline focuses on the study of some aspect or aspects of human societies: their history, government, social organization, laws, physical environment, and/or cultural heritage. Students who major or minor in the social sciences prepare for a variety of graduate programs or careers, for example, in teaching, government, law, historic preservation, business, health, and human services. Internships are especially helpful in establishing career objectives and obtaining practical knowledge. Social sciences students may apply for internships at the George Washington Carver National Monument, the Dorothea B. Hoover Historical Museum, as a social work minor, a paralegal studies minor, a political science minor, or a sociology major. Also, Missouri State Internships are available.

Minors are offered in each of the disciplines within the social sciences except anthropology. Two general Social Science minors are also available: a social science minor and a social studies for secondary education minor which qualifies students to teach in junior high and middle schools.
