Policy Owner	Dean of Students/Title IX Coordinator
Policy/Chapter Sections
Date of Next Review:	February 2027

1.0 PURPOSE

To avoid any potential or actual disruption of University operations or disturbance of faculty, staff, visitors, and students, the University has implemented this Policy prohibiting solicitation on campus.

2.0 SCOPE

This Policy applies to all members of the University community and all other individuals present on the University campus.

3.0 POLICY

Salespersons and solicitors are not permitted on the campus. Solicitors are not permitted to solicit from students, faculty, or staff during school hours or upon the University campus. For purposes of this Policy solicitation includes, but is not limited to, any undertaking of an individual or group to promote the sale or use of a particular product or service, or a contribution to an individual or organization. Private business may not be conducted on University premises. Credit card sales and promotion are expressly prohibited. Exceptions to this Policy can be made by the Dean of Students/Title IX Coordinator or Student Activities Office when a recognized student organization is involved, and then only when such service is directly relevant to the purposes of that organization and to the purposes of the University.

4.0 HISTORY

This policy may be revised, edited, changed or removed at any time with or without notice to applicable individuals
