

Ansbach University of Applied Sciences

Ansbach, Bavaria

Missouri Southern State University (Joplin, MO, USA), has entered into a written arrangement with Ansbach University of Applied Sciences (Ansbach, Bavaria, Germany) to promote international exchange, to increase scientific cooperation, and to favor the development of research and higher education, whether it concerns initial studies or training, in fields of common interest.

Portion of Program:

Exchange students will, for the duration of the complete academic year or for one semester only, take part in a full-time program between Missouri Southern State University and Ansbach University of Applied Sciences.

Method of Delivery:

Each institution is given the authority to administer the program of study how they deem appropriate, whether in-person instruction, online/distance education, or hybrid learning. The method of delivery of coursework will be disclosed to the student prior to the start of term upon enrollment in the program of study.

Estimated Costs:

As an exchange student, the student will be responsible for the following costs:

- Tuition and Fees: Students will be required to pay tuition and fees at MSSU.
- Room and Board: Students will be required to pay Ansbach University of Applied Sciences for room and board charges.
- Meals: Students will be required to pay Ansbach University of Applied Sciences for meals.
- Transportation Costs
- Medical Insurance Costs

Missouri Southern State University will give credit for courses taken at Ansbach University of Applied Sciences on the same basis as if they provided the training. Missouri Southern State University has found Ansbach University of Applied Sciences' academic standards equivalent to their own and the instruction an acceptable substitute for their own. This written arrangement will be amended as necessary by Missouri Southern State University but is indefinite, unless either institution requests termination of the arrangement. This information must be disclosed to enrolled and prospective students as a Consumer Information Disclosure, outlined under 34 CFR 668.5.

Any questions regarding either short-term or semester-long study abroad opportunities can be directed to Missouri Southern State University's Institute of International Studies.

Bremen University of Applied Sciences

Bremen, Germany

Missouri Southern State University (Joplin, MO, USA), has entered into a written arrangement with Bremen University of Applied Sciences (Bremen, Germany) to promote international exchange, to increase scientific cooperation, and to favor the development of research and higher education, whether it concerns initial studies or training, in fields of common interest.

Portion of Program:

Exchange students will, for the duration of the complete academic year or for one semester only, take part in a full-time program between Missouri Southern State University and Bremen University of Applied Sciences.

Method of Delivery:

Each institution is given the authority to administer the program of study how they deem appropriate, whether in-person instruction, online/distance education, or hybrid learning. The method of delivery of coursework will be disclosed to the student prior to the start of term upon enrollment in the program of study.

Estimated Costs:

As an exchange student, the student will be responsible for the following costs:

- Tuition and Fees: Students will be required to pay tuition and fees at MSSU.
- Room and Board: Students will be required to make their own arrangements for housing.
- Meals: Students will be required to make their own arrangements for meals.
- Transportation Costs
- Medical Insurance Costs

Missouri Southern State University will give credit for courses taken at Bremen University of Applied Sciences on the same basis as if they provided the training. Missouri Southern State University has found Bremen University of Applied Sciences' academic standards equivalent to their own and the instruction an acceptable substitute for their own. This written arrangement will be amended as necessary by Missouri Southern State University but is indefinite, unless either institution requests termination of the arrangement. This information must be disclosed to enrolled and prospective students as a Consumer Information Disclosure, outlined under 34 CFR 668.5.

Any questions regarding either short-term or semester-long study abroad opportunities can be directed to Missouri Southern State University's Institute of International Studies.

Communication University of China

Beijing, China

Missouri Southern State University (Joplin, MO, USA), has entered into a written arrangement with Communication University of China (Beijing, China) to promote international exchange, to increase scientific cooperation, and to favor the development of research and higher education, whether it concerns initial studies or training, in fields of common interest.

Portion of Program:

Exchange students will, for the duration of the complete academic year or for one semester only, take part in a full-time program between Missouri Southern State University and Communication University of China.

Method of Delivery:

Each institution is given the authority to administer the program of study how they deem appropriate, whether in-person instruction, online/distance education, or hybrid learning. The method of delivery of coursework will be disclosed to the student prior to the start of term upon enrollment in the program of study.

Estimated Costs:

As an exchange student, the student will be responsible for the following costs:

- Tuition and Fees: Students will be required to pay tuition and fees at MSSU.
- Room and Board: Students will be required to pay Communication University of China for room and board charges.
- Room and Board: Students will be required to pay Communication University of China for meals.
- Transportation Costs
- Medical Insurance Costs

Missouri Southern State University will give credit for courses taken at Communication University of China on the same basis as if they provided the training. Missouri Southern State University has found Communication University of China's academic standards equivalent to their own and the instruction an acceptable substitute for their own. This written arrangement will be amended as necessary by Missouri Southern State University but is indefinite, unless either institution requests termination of the arrangement. This information must be disclosed to enrolled and prospective students as a Consumer Information Disclosure, outlined under 34 CFR 668.5.

Any questions regarding either short-term or semester-long study abroad opportunities can be directed to Missouri Southern State University's Institute of International Studies.

Duksung Women's University

Seoul, South Korea

Missouri Southern State University (Joplin, MO, USA), has entered into a written arrangement with Duksung Women's University (Seoul, South Korea) to promote international exchange, to increase scientific cooperation, and to favor the development of research and higher education, whether it concerns initial studies or training, in fields of common interest.

Portion of Program:

Exchange students will, for the duration of one summer semester only, take part in a full-time program between Missouri Southern State University and Duksung Women's University.

Method of Delivery:

Each institution is given the authority to administer the program of study how they deem appropriate, whether in-person instruction, online/distance education, or hybrid learning. The method of delivery of coursework will be disclosed to the student prior to the start of term upon enrollment in the program of study.

Estimated Costs:

As an exchange student, the student will be responsible for the following costs:

- Tuition and Fees: Duksung Women's University will provide the student with a scholarship to cover tuition costs. The student must pay for three credit hours of tuition costs at MSSU.
- Room and Board: Duksung Women's University will provide the student with a scholarship to cover room and board costs.
- Meals: Duksung Women's University will provide the student with a scholarship to cover over thirty of their meals. The student may encounter additional meal costs that the scholarship does not cover.
- Transportation Costs
- Medical Insurance Costs

Missouri Southern State University will give credit for courses taken at Duksung Women's University the same basis as if they provided the training. Missouri Southern State University has found Duksung Women's University's academic standards equivalent to their own and the instruction an acceptable substitute for their own. This written arrangement will be amended as necessary by Missouri Southern State University but is indefinite, unless either institution requests termination of the arrangement. This information must be disclosed to enrolled and prospective students as a Consumer Information Disclosure, outlined under 34 CFR 668.5.

Any questions regarding either short-term or semester-long study abroad opportunities can be directed to Missouri Southern State University's Institute of International Studies.

Gakushuin Women's College

Tokyo, Japan

Missouri Southern State University (Joplin, MO, USA), has entered into a written arrangement with Gakushuin Women's College (Tokyo, Japan) to promote international exchange, to increase scientific cooperation, and to favor the development of research and higher education, whether it concerns initial studies or training, in fields of common interest.

Portion of Program:

Exchange students will, for the duration of the complete academic year or for one semester only, take part in a full-time program between Missouri Southern State University and Gakushuin Women's College.

Method of Delivery:

Each institution is given the authority to administer the program of study how they deem appropriate, whether in-person instruction, online/distance education, or hybrid learning. The method of delivery of coursework will be disclosed to the student prior to the start of term upon enrollment in the program of study.

Estimated Costs:

As an exchange student, the student will be responsible for the following costs:

- Tuition and Fees: Students will be required to pay tuition and fees at MSSU.
- Room and Board: Students will be required to make their own arrangements for housing.
- Meals: Students will be required to make their own arrangements for meals.
- Transportation Costs
- Medical Insurance Costs

Missouri Southern State University will give credit for courses taken at Gakushuin Women's College on the same basis as if they provided the training. Missouri Southern State University has found Gakushuin Women's College's academic standards equivalent to their own and the instruction an acceptable substitute for their own. This written arrangement will be amended as necessary by Missouri Southern State University but is indefinite, unless either institution requests termination of the arrangement. This information must be disclosed to enrolled and prospective students as a Consumer Information Disclosure, outlined under 34 CFR 668.5.

Any questions regarding either short-term or semester-long study abroad opportunities can be directed to Missouri Southern State University's Institute of International Studies.

Hansung University

Seoul, South Korea

Missouri Southern State University (Joplin, MO, USA), has entered into a written arrangement with Hansung University (Seoul, South Korea) to promote international exchange, to increase scientific cooperation, and to favor the development of research and higher education, whether it concerns initial studies or training, in fields of common interest.

Portion of Program:

Exchange students will, for the duration of one summer semester only, take part in a full-time program between Missouri Southern State University and Hansung University.

Method of Delivery:

Each institution is given the authority to administer the program of study how they deem appropriate, whether in-person instruction, online/distance education, or hybrid learning. The method of delivery of coursework will be disclosed to the student prior to the start of term upon enrollment in the program of study.

Estimated Costs:

As an exchange student, the student will be responsible for the following costs:

- Tuition and Fees: Hansung University will provide the student with a scholarship to cover tuition costs. The student must pay for four credit hours of tuition costs at MSSU.
- Room and Board: Hansung University will provide the student with a scholarship to cover room and board costs.
- Meals: Hansung University will provide the student with a scholarship to cover over thirty of their meals. The student may encounter additional meal costs that the scholarship does not cover.
- Transportation Costs
- Medical Insurance Costs

Missouri Southern State University will give credit for courses taken at Hansung University the same basis as if they provided the training. Missouri Southern State University has found Hansung University's academic standards equivalent to their own and the instruction an acceptable substitute for their own. This written arrangement will be amended as necessary by Missouri Southern State University but is indefinite, unless either institution requests termination of the arrangement. This information must be disclosed to enrolled and prospective students as a Consumer Information Disclosure, outlined under 34 CFR 668.5.

Any questions regarding either short-term or semester-long study abroad opportunities can be directed to Missouri Southern State University's Institute of International Studies.

Kansai Gaidai University

Hirakata City, Osaka

Missouri Southern State University (Joplin, MO, USA), has entered into a written arrangement with Kansai Gaidai University (Hirakata City, Osaka, Japan) to promote international exchange, to increase scientific cooperation, and to favor the development of research and higher education, whether it concerns initial studies or training, in fields of common interest.

Portion of Program:

Exchange students will, for the duration of the complete academic year or for one semester only, take part in a full-time program between Missouri Southern State University and Kansai Gaidai University.

Method of Delivery:

Each institution is given the authority to administer the program of study how they deem appropriate, whether in-person instruction, online/distance education, or hybrid learning. The method of delivery of coursework will be disclosed to the student prior to the start of term upon enrollment in the program of study.

Estimated Costs:

As an exchange student, the student will be responsible for the following costs:

- Tuition and Fees: Students will be required to pay tuition and fees at MSSU.
- Room and Board: Students will be required to make their own arrangements for housing.
- Meals: Students will be required to make their own arrangements for meals.
- Transportation Costs
- Medical Insurance Costs

Missouri Southern State University will give credit for courses taken at Kansai Gaidai University the same basis as if they provided the training. Missouri Southern State University has found Kansai Gaidai University's academic standards equivalent to their own and the instruction an acceptable substitute for their own. This written arrangement will be amended as necessary by Missouri Southern State University but is indefinite, unless either institution requests termination of the arrangement. This information must be disclosed to enrolled and prospective students as a Consumer Information Disclosure, outlined under 34 CFR 668.5.

Any questions regarding either short-term or semester-long study abroad opportunities can be directed to Missouri Southern State University's Institute of International Studies.

Meiji University

Tokyo, Japan

Missouri Southern State University (Joplin, MO, USA), has entered into a written arrangement with Meiji University (Tokyo, Japan) to promote international exchange, to increase scientific cooperation, and to favor the development of research and higher education, whether it concerns initial studies or training, in fields of common interest.

Portion of Program:

Exchange students will, for the duration of the complete academic year or for one semester only, take part in a full-time program between Missouri Southern State University and Meiji University.

Method of Delivery:

Each institution is given the authority to administer the program of study how they deem appropriate, whether in-person instruction, online/distance education, or hybrid learning. The method of delivery of coursework will be disclosed to the student prior to the start of term upon enrollment in the program of study.

Estimated Costs:

As an exchange student, the student will be responsible for the following costs:

- Tuition and Fees: Students will be required to pay tuition and fees at MSSU.
- Room and Board: Students will be required to pay room and board charges at Meiji University.
- Meals: Students will be required to make their own arrangements for meals.
- Transportation Costs
- Medical Insurance Costs

Missouri Southern State University will give credit for courses taken at Meiji University the same basis as if they provided the training. Missouri Southern State University has found Meiji University's academic standards equivalent to their own and the instruction an acceptable substitute for their own. This written arrangement will be amended as necessary by Missouri Southern State University but is indefinite, unless either institution requests termination of the arrangement. This information must be disclosed to enrolled and prospective students as a Consumer Information Disclosure, outlined under 34 CFR 668.5.

Any questions regarding either short-term or semester-long study abroad opportunities can be directed to Missouri Southern State University's Institute of International Studies.

Mullsjö Folkhögskola

Mullsjö, Sweden

Missouri Southern State University (Joplin, MO, USA), has entered into a written arrangement with Mullsjö Folkhögskola (Mullsjö, Sweden) to promote international exchange, to increase scientific cooperation, and to favor the development of research and higher education, whether it concerns initial studies or training, in fields of common interest.

Portion of Program:

Exchange students will, for the duration of the complete academic year or for one semester only, take part in a full-time program between Missouri Southern State University and Mullsjö Folkhögskola.

Method of Delivery:

Each institution is given the authority to administer the program of study how they deem appropriate, whether in-person instruction, online/distance education, or hybrid learning. The method of delivery of coursework will be disclosed to the student prior to the start of term upon enrollment in the program of study.

Estimated Costs:

As an exchange student, the student will be responsible for the following costs:

- Tuition and Fees: Students will be required to pay tuition and fees at both Mullsjö Folkhögskola and MSSU.
- Room and Board: Students will be required to pay room and board charges at Mullsjö Folkhögskola.
- Meals: Students will be required to pay for meals at Mullsjö Folkhögskola. Students will be responsible for their own meals on weekends.
- Transportation Costs
- Medical Insurance Costs

Missouri Southern State University will give credit for courses taken at Mullsjö Folkhögskola on the same basis as if they provided the training. Missouri Southern State University has found Mullsjö Folkhögskola's academic standards equivalent to their own and the instruction an acceptable substitute for their own. This written arrangement will be amended as necessary by Missouri Southern State University but is indefinite, unless either institution requests termination of the arrangement. This information must be disclosed to enrolled and prospective students as a Consumer Information Disclosure, outlined under 34 CFR 668.5.

Any questions regarding either short-term or semester-long study abroad opportunities can be directed to Missouri Southern State University's Institute of International Studies.

Odessa National Maritime University

Odessa, Ukraine

Missouri Southern State University (Joplin, MO, USA), has entered into a written arrangement with Odessa National Maritime University (Odessa, Ukraine) to promote international exchange, to increase scientific cooperation, and to favor the development of research and higher education, whether it concerns initial studies or training, in fields of common interest.

Portion of Program:

Exchange students will, for the duration of the complete academic year or for one semester only, take part in a full-time program between Missouri Southern State University and Odessa National Maritime University.

Method of Delivery:

Each institution is given the authority to administer the program of study how they deem appropriate, whether in-person instruction, online/distance education, or hybrid learning. The method of delivery of coursework will be disclosed to the student prior to the start of term upon enrollment in the program of study.

Estimated Costs:

As an exchange student, the student will be responsible for the following costs:

- Tuition and Fees: Students will be required to pay tuition and fees at both Odessa National Maritime University and MSSU.
- Room and Board: Students will be responsible for their own room and board costs.
- Meals: Students will be responsible for their own meal costs.
- Utilities: Students will be responsible for their utility costs.
- Transportation Costs
- Medical Insurance Costs

Missouri Southern State University will give credit for courses taken at Odessa National Maritime University on the same basis as if they provided the training. Missouri Southern State University has found Odessa National Maritime University's academic standards equivalent to their own and the instruction an acceptable substitute for their own. This written arrangement will be amended as necessary by Missouri Southern State University but is indefinite, unless either institution requests termination of the arrangement. This information must be disclosed to enrolled and prospective students as a Consumer Information Disclosure, outlined under 34 CFR 668.5.

Any questions regarding either short-term or semester-long study abroad opportunities can be directed to Missouri Southern State University's Institute of International Studies.

Ryukoku University

Kyoto, Japan

Missouri Southern State University (Joplin, MO, USA), has entered into a written arrangement with Ryukoku University (Kyoto, Japan) to promote international exchange, to increase scientific cooperation, and to favor the development of research and higher education, whether it concerns initial studies or training, in fields of common interest.

Portion of Program:

Exchange students will, for the duration of the complete academic year or for one semester only, take part in a full-time program between Missouri Southern State University and Ryukoku University.

Method of Delivery:

Each institution is given the authority to administer the program of study how they deem appropriate, whether in-person instruction, online/distance education, or hybrid learning. The method of delivery of coursework will be disclosed to the student prior to the start of term upon enrollment in the program of study.

Estimated Costs:

As an exchange student, the student will be responsible for the following costs:

- Tuition and Fees: Students will be required to pay tuition and fees at MSSU.
- Room and Board: Students will be required to pay room and board charges at MSSU.
- Meals: Students will be required to make their own arrangements for meals.
- Utilities: Students will be required to pay their own utilities.
- Transportation Costs
- Medical Insurance Costs

Missouri Southern State University will give credit for courses taken at Ryukoku University the same basis as if they provided the training. Missouri Southern State University has found Ryukoku University's academic standards equivalent to their own and the instruction an acceptable substitute for their own. This written arrangement will be amended as necessary by Missouri Southern State University but is indefinite, unless either institution requests termination of the arrangement. This information must be disclosed to enrolled and prospective students as a Consumer Information Disclosure, outlined under 34 CFR 668.5.

Any questions regarding either short-term or semester-long study abroad opportunities can be directed to Missouri Southern State University's Institute of International Studies.

Sangmyung University

Seoul, South Korea

Missouri Southern State University (Joplin, MO, USA), has entered into a written arrangement with Sangmyung University (Seoul, South Korea) to promote international exchange, to increase scientific cooperation, and to favor the development of research and higher education, whether it concerns initial studies or training, in fields of common interest.

Portion of Program:

Exchange students will, for the duration of the complete academic year or for one semester only, take part in a full-time program between Missouri Southern State University and Sangmyung University.

Method of Delivery:

Each institution is given the authority to administer the program of study how they deem appropriate, whether in-person instruction, online/distance education, or hybrid learning. The method of delivery of coursework will be disclosed to the student prior to the start of term upon enrollment in the program of study.

Estimated Costs:

As an exchange student, the student will be responsible for the following costs:

- Tuition and Fees: Students will be required to pay tuition and fees at MSSU.
- Room and Board: Students will be required to make their own arrangements for room and board.
- Meals: Students will be required to make their own arrangements for meals.
- Transportation Costs
- Medical Insurance Costs

Missouri Southern State University will give credit for courses taken at Sangmyung University the same basis as if they provided the training. Missouri Southern State University has found Sangmyung University's academic standards equivalent to their own and the instruction an acceptable substitute for their own. This written arrangement will be amended as necessary by Missouri Southern State University but is indefinite, unless either institution requests termination of the arrangement. This information must be disclosed to enrolled and prospective students as a Consumer Information Disclosure, outlined under 34 CFR 668.5.

Any questions regarding either short-term or semester-long study abroad opportunities can be directed to Missouri Southern State University's Institute of International Studies.

The University of Prince Edward Island

Charlottetown, PE, Canada

Missouri Southern State University (Joplin, MO, USA), has entered into a written arrangement with the University of Prince Edward Island (Charlottetown, PE, Canada) to promote international exchange, to increase scientific cooperation, and to favor the development of research and higher education, whether it concerns initial studies or training, in fields of common interest.

Portion of Program:

Exchange students will, for the duration of the complete academic year or for one semester only, take part in a full-time program between Missouri Southern State University and the University of Prince Edward Island.

Method of Delivery:

Each institution is given the authority to administer the program of study how they deem appropriate, whether in-person instruction, online/distance education, or hybrid learning. The method of delivery of coursework will be disclosed to the student prior to the start of term upon enrollment in the program of study.

Estimated Costs:

As an exchange student, the student will be responsible for the following costs:

- Tuition and Fees: Students will be required to pay tuition and fees at MSSU.
- Room and Board: Students will be required to pay the University of Prince Edward Island for room and board charges.
- Room and Board: Students will be required to pay the University of Prince Edward Island for meals.
- Transportation Costs
- Medical Insurance Costs

Missouri Southern State University will give credit for courses taken at the University of Prince Edward Island on the same basis as if they provided the training. Missouri Southern State University has found UPEI's academic standards equivalent to their own and the instruction an acceptable substitute for their own. This written arrangement will be amended as necessary by Missouri Southern State University but is indefinite, unless either institution requests termination of the arrangement. This information must be disclosed to enrolled and prospective students as a Consumer Information Disclosure, outlined under 34 CFR 668.5.

Any questions regarding either short-term or semester-long study abroad opportunities can be directed to Missouri Southern State University's Institute of International Studies.

Université d'Orléans

Orléans, France

Missouri Southern State University (Joplin, MO, USA), has entered into a written arrangement with Université d'Orléans (Orléans, France) to promote international exchange, to increase scientific cooperation, and to favor the development of research and higher education, whether it concerns initial studies or training, in fields of common interest.

Portion of Program:

Exchange students will, for the duration of the complete academic year or for one semester only, take part in a full-time program between Missouri Southern State University and Université d'Orléans.

Method of Delivery:

Each institution is given the authority to administer the program of study how they deem appropriate, whether in-person instruction, online/distance education, or hybrid learning. The method of delivery of coursework will be disclosed to the student prior to the start of term upon enrollment in the program of study.

Estimated Costs:

As an exchange student, the student will be responsible for the following costs:

- Tuition and Fees: Students will be required to pay tuition and fees at MSSU.
- Room and Board: Students will be required to pay Université d'Orléans for room and board charges.
- Meals and Housing Insurance: Students will be required to pay Université d'Orléans for meals and housing insurance.
- Transportation Costs
- Medical Insurance Costs

Missouri Southern State University will give credit for courses taken at Université d'Orléans on the same basis as if they provided the training. Missouri Southern State University has found Université d'Orléans' academic standards equivalent to their own and the instruction an acceptable substitute for their own. This written arrangement will be amended as necessary by Missouri Southern State University but is indefinite, unless either institution requests termination of the arrangement. This information must be disclosed to enrolled and prospective students as a Consumer Information Disclosure, outlined under 34 CFR 668.5.

Any questions regarding either short-term or semester-long study abroad opportunities can be directed to Missouri Southern State University's Institute of International Studies.

Université de Savoie

Chambéry, France

Missouri Southern State University (Joplin, MO, USA), has entered into a written arrangement with Université de Savoie (Chambéry, France) to promote international exchange, to increase scientific cooperation, and to favor the development of research and higher education, whether it concerns initial studies or training, in fields of common interest.

Portion of Program:

Exchange students will, for the duration of the complete academic year or for one semester only, take part in a full-time program between Missouri Southern State University and Université de Savoie.

Method of Delivery:

Each institution is given the authority to administer the program of study how they deem appropriate, whether in-person instruction, online/distance education, or hybrid learning. The method of delivery of coursework will be disclosed to the student prior to the start of term upon enrollment in the program of study.

Estimated Costs:

As an exchange student, the student will be responsible for the following costs:

- Tuition and Fees: Students will be required to pay tuition and fees at MSSU.
- Room and Board: Students will be required to pay Université de Savoie for room and board charges.
- Meals: Students will be required to pay Université de Savoie for meals.
- Transportation Costs
- Medical Insurance Costs

Missouri Southern State University will give credit for courses taken at Université de Savoie on the same basis as if they provided the training. Missouri Southern State University has found Université de Savoie's academic standards equivalent to their own and the instruction an acceptable substitute for their own. This written arrangement will be amended as necessary by Missouri Southern State University but is indefinite, unless either institution requests termination of the arrangement. This information must be disclosed to enrolled and prospective students as a Consumer Information Disclosure, outlined under 34 CFR 668.5.

Any questions regarding either short-term or semester-long study abroad opportunities can be directed to Missouri Southern State University's Institute of International Studies.

University of Hradec Králové

Hradec Králové, Czech Republic

Missouri Southern State University (Joplin, MO, USA), has entered into a written arrangement with the University of Hradec Králové (Hradec Králové, Czech Republic) to promote international exchange, to increase scientific cooperation, and to favor the development of research and higher education, whether it concerns initial studies or training, in fields of common interest.

Portion of Program:

Exchange students will, for the duration of one semester only, take part in a full-time program between Missouri Southern State University and the University of Hradec Králové.

Method of Delivery:

Each institution is given the authority to administer the program of study how they deem appropriate, whether in-person instruction, online/distance education, or hybrid learning. The method of delivery of coursework will be disclosed to the student prior to the start of term upon enrollment in the program of study.

Estimated Costs:

As an exchange student, the student will be responsible for the following costs:

- Tuition and Fees: Students will be required to pay tuition and fees at MSSU.
- Room and Board: Students will be required to pay room and board charges at MSSU.
- Meals: Students will receive a meal stipend from the University of Hradec Králové.
- Transportation Costs
- Medical Insurance Costs

Missouri Southern State University will give credit for courses taken at the University of Hradec Králové on the same basis as if they provided the training. Missouri Southern State University has found the University of Hradec Králové's academic standards equivalent to their own and the instruction an acceptable substitute for their own. This written arrangement will be amended as necessary by Missouri Southern State University but is indefinite, unless either institution requests termination of the arrangement. This information must be disclosed to enrolled and prospective students as a Consumer Information Disclosure, outlined under 34 CFR 668.5.

Any questions regarding either short-term or semester-long study abroad opportunities can be directed to Missouri Southern State University's Institute of International Studies.